Command And Conquer RA2 exp - Yuri Revenge hack tool Category:Red Alert (franchise) Category:DLC Category:Video game expansion packs1941–42 Stoke City F.C. season The 1941–42 season was Stoke City's 36th season in the Football League and the 34th in the First Division. Career Cowell was to be the manager in his fourth season and within a month he had assembled an impressive team which included eight new players. Season review The 1937–38 season had been a disappointment after a rich vein of form from mid 1936 had brought Stoke to within two points of promotion to the First Division. However manager Ben Watts had left to take the top job at Liverpool and was replaced by Alec Lorimer and it proved to be his last full season in charge at Stoke. Stoke won just 8 of their first 30 matches in the league and under new manager Alf Ramsey they climbed up to 13th in the table. The players had a pre-season friendly against Birmingham and won 6–2 but otherwise the disappointing campaign continued. Stoke however did produce their first ever FA Cup run with a third round replay with neighbours and cup competitors Wolverhampton Wanderers. The game went to a replay at Port Vale's Gay Meadow but the match was rescheduled after rain flooded the ground. Stoke had just three players injured and a weakened side beat the "Valiants" 3–1 at The Victoria Ground. Stoke were drawn away at Millwall in the fourth round and despite a 2–1 win at The Den the game was a difficult tie for Stoke as they lost 3–1. Stoke won both legs against local rivals Port Vale and won 1–0 at Leyton Orient. Stoke were now in the last 16 and drawn at home against Lancashire rivals Blackburn Rovers. The home match would see Stoke put in an unexpected defensive display by keeping a clean sheet in a 1–0 win. The highlight of Stoke's cup run was a 1–1 draw with Leicester City in the fifth round with Stoke needing to win the replay, and they did so at the Baseball Ground, Stoke's home ground. The replay at Filbert Street saw Stoke again hold out to win the game 1–0. In the quarter finals Stoke played semi-professional Harwich & Parkeston. With the Harwich goalkeeper Johnny Southall and Stoke's Ian Taylor injured and Stoke under suspension then Ro 570a42141b
